

Phila., July 11, 1879

Dr. Leconte: -

Dear Sir.

Instead of sending to the Mart, I send the 9th or last volume to your residence. It is left on sale with me by a party who needs the money, and are obliged to sell it. They are anxious for me to sell it as soon as possible. There is another party who will take it to-morrow, if you do not. I told them you had the refusal of it. I therefore send the last volume to your residence so that you may look at it to-night. Will send my man to your residence to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock; and if you wish the set, he can bring the volume back, and the 9 volumes can be taken whenever you may wish them to be sent. 9 volumes are all that are out, and the 9th volume has been issued only about 2 weeks.

Very Respectfully
Henry H. Holliman
7 St. 10th. St. at.
City.

Rec<sup>d</sup> July 11th, 1879.

Phila., July 11. 1879.

Dr. Leconte, -

Enclosed is your note, the latter part of which I do not understand. I told you yesterday you could have the subsequent volumes as they came out. I do not know what you mean by an official letter with the order. <sup>has</sup>

The party left it with me for sale, and they need the money at once. If I sent it up this morning, can I receive the money for it to-day. Of course, any order from the ment is good enough; but then the parties want to use the money at once. They would rather have $17.00 in money than an order for $18.00 that they could not use for several days.

Very Respectfully,
Henry H. Hollings.

394

Philadelphia, Pa
July 11/79

Henry N. Hollaway

In reference to the purchase of Books, for which the money is wanted immediately.

Recd July 11/79

[Letter One:]

Phila.

July 11, 1879

Dr. Leconte: -

Dear Sir,

Instead of sending to the Mint, I send the 9th or last volume to your residence. It is left on sale with me by a party who needs the money, and we oblige to sell it. They are anxious for me to sell it as soon as possible. There is another party who will take it tomorrow, if you do not. I told them you had the refusal of it. I therefore send the last volume to your residence so that you may look at it tonight. Will send my man to your residence tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock; and if you wish the set, he can bring the volume back, and the 9 volumes can be taken wherever you may wish them to be sent. 9 volumes are all that we are out, and the 9th volume has been issued only about 2 weeks.

Very Respectfully,
Henry H. Holloway
78th 10th Street.
City.

[Letter Two:]

[Abstract:] In reference to the purchase of Books, for which the money is wanted immediately.

Phila.

July 11, 1879

Dr. Leconte: -

Enclosed is your note, the latter part of which I do not understand. I told you yesterday you could have the subsequent volumes as they came out. I do not know what you mean by an official letter with the order.

The party has left it with me for sale, and they need the money at once. If I sent it up this money, can I receive the money for it today. Of course, any order from the Mint is good enough; but then the parties want to use the money at once. They would rather have $17.00 in money than an order for $18.00 that they could not use for several days.

Very Respectfully,
Henry H. Holloway